Learn how to spot these traits and how to deal with them.

8 WEEKS UNTIL

PRUDENTIAL RIDE LONDON

The Prudential RideLondon festival of cycling will take place on Saturday 29 July in London and Sunday 30 July in London and Surrey.

Event routes have a very similar footprint to last year's event, and road closure information will be online from mid-June.

If you have planning or access queries please contact our helpdesk: 0345 8949 773 or helpdesk@ridelondon.co.uk.

Nicola Adams to take up 46-mile challenge

Two-time Olympic boxing champion Nicola Adams OBE will take on the challenge of cycling the Prudential RideLondon-Surrey 46 on Sunday 30 July. As part of an initiative with Teach First, the social mobility charity tackling educational inequality, Adams will mentor students and teachers from schools all over the UK as they prepare for the ride.

The route will take them from Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park, through the capital into Surrey and back to London for a spectacular finish on The Mall.

Volunteer Opportunities
Prudential RideLondon uses the help of thousands of fantastic volunteers to make the event a great success. If you have local knowledge, love cycling or just want to get involved, why not become one of our 'Veloteers'?

We have a number of volunteer roles available across the event weekend.

The Challenges of ... Employing People!

Most businesses are started by just one or two people with a great product or service, or a special skill, and the energy and courage to make things happen. Then, at a certain point, they find there are not enough hours in the day to carry on doing everything themselves, and they have to face the daunting prospect of employing someone else for the first time.

Are you worried about the challenges involved in recruiting and managing another person? Maybe you have heard horror stories from other business owners that are putting you off ...

Or perhaps you already have employees, but feel out of your depth when it comes to dealing with some of the management challenges you are now facing? Maybe you've had some bad experiences in the past, with recruitment, conduct or performance management, or dismissal, which have made you nervous about tackling such situations again?

Employing people is not always plain sailing, but with sufficient planning and preparation, all employment challenges can be overcome. And remember, you don't have to face them on your own.

Chamber Member Mara Thorne of M Thorne Consulting Limited is a highly experienced Bookham-based HR Consultant whose practical and affordable advice and support is invaluable to many local businesses.

Check out Mara's new video for a brief overview of how to approach some of the most common challenges involved in employing other people.
